Why choose e-learning?

E-learning provides a convenient, low-cost option for employees to get up to speed on a variety of health and safety topics.

Using a computer with internet access, workers learn at their own pace at a time that suits the organization's schedule.

As well as providing a significant cost savings by eliminating travel expenses, there's no need for employees to be away from work for extended periods of time. Plus with e-learning, you're able to train employees at multiple locations, using consistent content.

Why choose our e-courses?

UNIQUE By partnering with the Canadian Centre for Occupational Health and Safety, our courses are developed by subject specialists and reviewed by representatives from labour, employers and government.

LINKS TO RESOURCES What's more, our courses contain links to a pan-Canadian legislation database and where the legislation may reference CSA standards, a convenient link to CSA is included.

---

CONTENT FOR PROVINCIAL AND NATIONAL WORKPLACES For companies with locations throughout Canada, we offer both provincial and national based courses, with most courses available in English and French.

---

BLENDED LEARNING Compliment your web-based training with our industry-specific health and safety products, publications, consulting services and classroom training.

COMPLIANCE Plus, our courses will be compliant with the new Accessibility for Ontario's Disability Act and are SCORM* compliant.
